Luckett and Dwyer Complete Arrangements.

NEW MANAGER FOR COLUMBIA

Fred G. Berger Will Assume Supervision of the Anusement Place June, 1908, After Remodeling It. cured Site for Proposed Structure.

atrilcal affairs were made yesterday. One TAYLOR'S PHARMACY, 9th and P sts. nw. is that Fred G. Berger, now managing Mr. KENER'S PHARMACY, 9th and S sts. nw. Kyrle Bellew for Klaw & Erlanger, will McCHESNEY & JOACHIM, 2d and E sts. ne. become the manager of the Columbia Theater in June, 1908, on the expiration of SHERWOOD'S, corner Prince and Royal sts. the present lease of Luckett & Dwyer; the second that the latter are to have built for them in Washington a new theater of large seating capacity, with the most WANTED-COLORED NIGHT ENGINEER; 2D modern equipment and of the most expensive construction. Joseph Luckett sald last night that the site for the new house had already been secured, and he would WANTED-THE DEMAND FOR STENOGRA be ready to announce its location in a few

the erection of the house have been ration of the plans will soon begin. It will be a playhouse presenting the highest class of attractions exclusively, and in external design, and in ex ternal design and internal arrangements and finish will be in every way worthy of the capital of the country. Its seating capacity will be perhaps larger than any of the present first-class houses here, and its stage will be so spacious that the most elaborate and pretentious scenic produc tions, including grand opera, can be handled on it with ease. The house will be centrally located, and it will, if present distinct addition to the fine buildings of

Mr. Berger said that his plans for the Columbia, when he succeeded to its man agement, have not been worked out in detail, as it is a long time off before he will re-enter the managerial field in Washington. It is already decided, however, that the Columbia will be practically reconstructed during the summer of 1908 up-to-date in every particular, and Mr. Berger has no doubt it will continue under his management to be a gathering place for the best people of Washington. He has not yet decided just what his managerial policy will be. He did say, to be run as a first-class house. He said WANTED-BOYS TO SELL THE WASHINGTON there was ample capital behind his venture. As Mr. Berger is now connected with the big firm of Klaw & Erlanger, under whose direction the tour of Mr. Bellew and Miss Ward is being conducted as manager of the Columbia, work in connection with that firm.

Mr. Berger considers Washington his home, as he has lived here most of the home, as he has lived here most of the time for fifteen years. For four years he was the manager of the Lafayette, now the Belasco Theater. This was from 1900 the Belasco Theater. This was from 1900 work in family of 3 adults.
